NANDGHAR

Schemes Details

Department	Women & Child Development Department
Objective	The "NANDGHAR" initiative, conceptualized, aims to give a distinct identity to Anganwadi centers. The children attending these centers are considered "Shri Krishna," while the Anganwadi workers and helpers who take care of them are regarded as "Mata Yashoda."
Purpose	"Nandghar" is a community initiative aimed at empowering women and children through education, healthcare, and skill development in rural areas.
Benefits	Financial support
Eligibility	Gram Panchayat
Documents Required	Identity Proof (e.g., Passport, Aadhaar Card, Driver's License, Voter ID) Address Proof (e.g., Utility Bill, Rental Agreement, Bank Statement) Photograph (usually a recent passport-size photo) Signature (digital signature for the form) Educational Certificates (e.g., Mark Sheets, Degree Certificates) Experience Certificates (for job applications) Financial Documents (e.g., Bank Statements, Salary Slips, Tax Returns) Medical Certificates (for health-related applications) Caste/Category Certificates (for specific category applicants)